

Sebastian Bartsch

is authorized to bear the title of

CACSP

Certified Automotive Cyber Security Professional

The following qualifications are confirmed through the title:

- ✚ Extensive knowledge of the contents of the SAE J3061 standard
- ✚ Extensive experience regarding the interpretation of the requirements of SAE J3061
- ✚ Extensive experience of the methodology to implement the requirements according to SAE J3061

The certification is based on the following qualification measures:

- ✚ Attendance of the specific technical seminars of SGS-TÜV Saar to interpret and apply SAE J3061 (Modules CS1 to CS2) or comparable training activities
- ✚ Successful CACSP test participation

This certificate is valid until:

29.11.2020

Marcus Rau
Global Operations & Training Manager
Cyber Security

Martin Schmidt
Global Manager
Cyber Security

Certificate number:
Certificate issued on:

0023
18.12.2017

SGS-TÜV Saar GmbH
Functional Safety &
Cyber Security
Hofmannstr. 50
81379 München
Germany

This is to certify that

Sebastian Bartsch

has successfully completed the training

Introduction Cyber Security in Industry
Module CS1

in Ulm, 28th November 2017

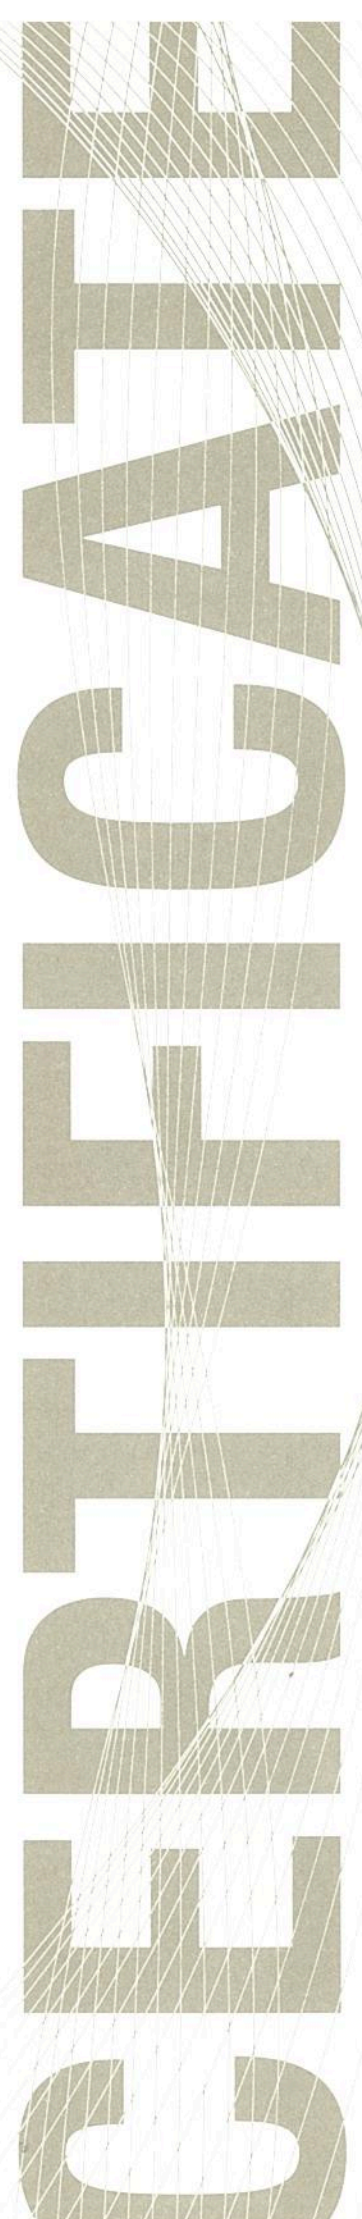

Content:

- Introduction into Cyber Security
- Presentation of Cyber Security concepts for Vehicles (SAE J3061)
Industrial automation and controlsystems (IEC 62443)

Ulm, 28.11.2017

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Lisner'.

Dr. Jens Lisner

This is to certify that

Sebastian Bartsch

has successfully completed the training

SAE J3061 – Cyber Security for the Automotive Industry
Module CS2

in Ulm, 29th November 2017

Content:

- Introduction into Cyber Security concepts for vehicles according to SAE J3061
- Security management
- Security requirements for product, hardware and software development process
- Tips for practical implementation and references to other standards

Ulm, 29.11.2017

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Lisner'.

Dr. Jens Lisner